- Additional Intel Updates:
  - A video was shared to the Freedom Convoy 2022 Facebook page which was originally posted by the Facebook user Personal Info. The individual states:
    - "Probably have heard about the troubles over the Coutts border. We have some boots on the ground there today so we have some updates but we're keeping some of the cards close to our chest. So yes if you hear rumors that they're all running away, they are moving. But they are not running away. They're not giving up. They're regrouping."
    - "so if your trying to funnel funds over to people here in Ottawa you may want to try and find a way to launder that a little bit like say through an email address that is active somewhere else in the country"
    - "there will still be another celebration here this weekend"
    - "I am sure there will be an awful lot more tomorrow as things seem to escalate around the country with the various new protests that are popping up and our government trying to escalate thing in different places too"[i]

Operational Planning:

- The MOA between the RCMP and OPS has been extended and signed off by the DCFP, it is now over with OPS for signature by the Chair of the Police Services Board and the Chief of Police.
